Welcoming our new Assistant Curates!

This June, we will be really delighted to welcome our new curates Revd Rose Jones and Revd Geraldine Ashton. They will both be ordained as deacons at Truro Cathedral on Friday 28th June at 7.30pm, along with Lee Chantler, Jeffrey Terry and Fiona Giorla, who are all known to us in the Cluster.

Geraldine and Rose's first service in the Cluster as ordained ministers will be the communion service at St Kew at 9.30am on Sunday 30th June, and we will be having a welcome lunch for them both at St Kew Parish Hall at 12.30pm the same day. Please do come along to meet and congratulate them!

During their curacies (which last 3-4 years) Rose and Geraldine will be learning as they do the work of ordained ministry, and you are likely to see them accompanying me on visits and in services. They will also attend training with the other curates in the diocese, but they will spend most of their time in the Cluster. Rose will be a full-time curate, training to become a Parish Priest or Chaplain in the future, and Geraldine will be a part-time curate, training for the role of Associate Priest, similar to the role that Judith and Andrew have previously carried out in our Cluster.

Geraldine and Rose will be ordained as deacons for the first year of their curacy. During this year they will be able to take baptisms, funerals and non-eucharistic services, as well as preaching and getting involved in mission and pastoral care. Next summer, we expect that they will be ordained as priests, and then they will begin to take weddings and communion services as well.

Rose and Geraldine begin their time with us as curates with a great many gifts and skills which will enrich and inspire us. We already know Geraldine well, and look forward to getting to know Rose when she arrives. I hope that all of us will continue to support and uphold them, and their families, in prayer as they are ordained and throughout their time with us. I thank God for calling them both to journey with us and look forward to all that God will do through them in our churches and communities.

Revd Elizabeth

Parish Retreat

Last month people from across the cluster gathered over a few days to reflect over some thoughtful subjects together.

Messy Church Birthday Party

We had such fun celebrating God's goodness to us! We looked at how Jesus provides for our needs by considering the miracle of the 5 loaves and 2 fishes. We had cooked fish to sample, made our own rolls, and did a drama with several children clamouring to be the small boy. We thought about how close we feel to Jesus by making a big picture which can be seen in the church in the Children's corner.

Among other things we had an amazing experiment from our scientist in residence. Did you know that sand can become a liquid? The children were fascinated that objects could rest on sand and then be sunk. It was likened to the Wind of the Holy Spirit which we can't see, but which has results.

Next Messy Church:
8th June 10am at the Perceval
Institute, St Minver

We had a fair Trade stall, and finished with a maths song to illustrate the story with our fingers. Everyone had good fun, and my thanks go to all my team

It is so exciting that Messy is now a worldwide movement. As regional coordinator for Cornwall North and East it is my privilege to be in touch with Messy churches all over Cornwall. As shown in the church Army research, the issues, and rewards, are the same in all Messy Churches. It is lovely to be able to network and support and pray for each other. With God's help I am hoping we will continue to grow in the next 5 years.

Anyone is welcome to come and see what we do, join, in, volunteer etc and be part of God's family here in St Minver. For more info please contact Ann 01208862550 or email ann.sumra@btinternet.com

Working with children and families

Deanery meeting to share experience of working with children and families on Wednesday 26th June at Lanlivery Church. Refreshments from 6.45pm for a 7.15pm start. All are welcome.

Patchwork prayer cross

Here is a photos of the patchwork prayer cross at St Minver (and on the cover). The idea was based around the healing of Dorcus (Tabitha) and her gift of sewing and needlework.

Prayers were written for people who share their gifts with the community on the back of pieces of material and made a patchwork cross during a recent all-age service.

Calling all Poets

Entries are invited of poems, or prose (maximum 300 words) on the theme of love for a book being produced for the North Cornwall Book Festival. Some will be read at the Book Festival Service. Entries to Judith by email judithpollinger262@gmail.com by 13th August.

Living the Questions

The last five sessions of this course challenge us to engage with God and God's world in transformative ways. We will meet on Wednesdays at 7pm at Trellij: 19th and 26th June; 10th, 17th and 24th July. All are welcome. Please contact Elizabeth Wild if you'd like to come along.

JUNE

Third Sunday in June – Father's Day. Father's Day was first suggested in 1909 by a lady in Washington, USA, in appreciation of her own father, and in direct imitation of the new Mother's Day, which was beginning to gain support at the time. Although taking time to catch on, it was finally recognized by a joint resolution of Congress in 1956, and received Presidential support in 1966 and 1972. Father's Day entered British popular culture in the wake of Mother's Day sometime after the Second World War. Some say it is a card-day too far.

29th June. St Peter's Day/St Paul's Day. Considering the pre-eminence of St Peter and Paul in early history, and their continued popularity ever since, it might seem strange that no particular festivals and few customs have been recorded for this day. However, it seems they were simply too close to Midsummer's Day and St John the Baptist's Day, on 24 June, to acquire many customs of their own, and instead became incorporated into a midsummer festival season that lasted until the end of the month. In some areas it was said that the weather on St Peter's Day was crucial to the apple crop. According to an 1886 Herefordshire saying: Unless the apples are christened on St Peter's Day the crop will not be good; and there ought to be a shower of rain when the people will go through the orchards, but no one seems to know for what purpose.
