Holy Habit #3: Worship

February's a funny old month. After the calm of January, suddenly the shops erupt into pink balloons and giant love hearts, as the world goes romance-crazy for Valentine's day. If you were taking your life lessons from Valentine's films, you'd learn that the most important thing in every relationship is love. Love is a fiery, life-changing feeling which can overcome anything – until it disappears. If that happens, there's nothing for it but to abandon ship for the next thing that makes your heart skip.

The Bible talks about our love for God as fiery and passionate, 'strong as death, unyielding as the grave...like blazing fire'. The psalmist sings tenderly to the God she loves: 'Your love is better than life itself.' There is a great Christian tradition of worshipping God intimately, extravagantly, lovingly. We can feel incredibly close to God, the One who knows us inside out, hold us in his palm, and lovingly tends us. It's wonderful when we feel God's love.

But unlike Valentine's love, our love for God is more than a feeling. It's a choice. We worship God not because it makes us feel good but because God is worth it. We worship when we feel close to him, and when he feels far away; when we enjoy it and when it drags out of us begrudgingly.

I hope that you're enjoying worshipping more and in new ways as we explore this holy habit. But if not – if you're finding February dull and grey, and worship a chore – can I encourage you: worship even when it feels hard and boring. Worship when you'd rather be watching telly, or putting your feet up. Worship when you want a lie-in. Worship when it's tough: because the muscle you're building will help sustain your faith, and because our God, the Creator of the universe, the Saviour who bled for us, is worth every tired prayer and reluctant psalm.

Commissioning of Local Pastoral Ministers

Here is a picture of our newly commissioned Local Pastoral Ministers, Beth and Jan. They were commissioned by Archdeacon Audrey at St Thomas' Church, Camelford on 13th January 2020.

A promotional graphic for 'Nostalgia Café'. The background is a dark blue sky with a yellow crescent moon that has a smiling face and a blue hat. The text 'Nostalgia' is in a red, cursive font, and 'CAFÉ' is in a red, blocky font. Below that, 'at the' is in a small, yellow, cursive font, and 'PERCEVAL' is in a large, white, blocky font. At the bottom, 'Once a month' and 'every 3rd Saturday' are in white, blocky fonts, and '2 - 4pm' is in a white, blocky font.

Tanzania Adventure

As many of you may know I recently spent 10 weeks in Tanzania working with Raleigh international through a program called ICS. I was working in a rural village called Mbogo, on a project to teach and facilitate business skills to young entrepreneurs, in order to help them set up their own businesses. It was an amazing experience to travel to somewhere so different from home and to work with such a sustainable charity, on a project that made a visible positive change in the community. In my team of 12 (made up of half Tanzanian volunteers) we had over 90 young entrepreneurs complete the program, every one of them received training on sourcing finance for their businesses, such as help with forming groups to access government loans and training on setting up/accessing community banking schemes. However at the end of the program the best business ideas were also allowed to pitch for a Raleigh grant, eight of these businesses (some entrepreneurs grouped together) in our village received the grant, including a tailor shop, a juice seller, a chicken farm, a barbers and other ideas. Before we left we got to see these businesses get set up in the community and the other entrepreneurs were already preparing to apply for alternative sources of finance. The project was a success and helped change that community for the better, but the trip as a whole taught me a lot too. It was an incredible experience to be immersed in a different culture and there was definitely a lot of things I learnt along the way that I hope to keep with me.

One thing that stuck with me is the amazing welcome that we received in the village, we were staying with host families and they took us into their own homes and welcomed us into their families with such joy. Villagers would literally shout 'Karibu' meaning welcome at us as we walked around the village, wouldn't it be amazing if we could welcome foreigners into this country with such ferocity!

I wanted to thank everyone who supported me in raising the money to go out there and in prayer while I was there too, I could never have done this without all of your support, thank you!

Update on St Peter's Church

Unfortunately when the scaffolding went up the poor state of the roof was obvious and to keep the Church waterproof considerable work has to be completed. Hopefully the wind and rain will stop to enable the work to be completed.

In the New Year the builders were able to move into the church and on inspecting under the floor boards it was found that the joists were rotten and needed replacing.

The electrics have been renewed and now all wiring will be behind the new wainscoting, it is also hoped to put some floor sockets in the body of the church to enable more flexibility. The heaters will be at floor level and hopefully warm the congregation and not the roof.

Services are being held in the village hall and it is giving the congregation a chance to appreciate running water and a toilet!

Holy ground for Epiphany at St Endellion - arrived with refractory camels in my head, and Andrew Lewis's sermon was drawn from Lancelot Andrews' 1622 Christmas sermon, on which TS Eliot based his poem. A small child spent the whole service fascinated by the crib at which the Magi has just arrived, 'Unless you become like children...'

Carols at St Moritz

Ann Sumra would like to thank all those who came to sing carols at St Moritz on Christmas Eve. It was so well received we have been booked for next year! And good feedback from residents. We also made £194 for St Petrocs, so well worth doing! This enabled a gentleman to have a new pair of size 13 1/2 shoes. Bless you all.

What is a 'souper' lunch?

The 'souper' lunch is a community lunch held each month at the community hall at St.Kew Highway. It is open to people of all ages and a very warm welcome is extended to all. A choice of homemade soup & bread, followed by a range of puddings and coffee or tea is available. The atmosphere is friendly, and we all have a lovely time. There is no charge as such, but donations are collected and each month the group decide which charities to send to. In 2019 we collected almost £1000 and contributed to the work of Dreadnought, Sowenna Appeal, Shelter Box, Carrick Mind, Mermaid Centre and Children in Need to name but a few. The 'souper' lunch will be held on Fridays: 17th January, 14th February, 20th March, 17th April, 15th May and 19th June. We invite you to come along and see for yourself that the 'souper' lunch is indeed super! We look forward to welcoming you.

Rev'd Geraldine.

February!

It's an odd month isn't it? One I always seem to struggle with. It's a bit like running the last leg of a race when you are tired but must keep going until you get to the finish line. The finish line being the end of winter and the start of spring.

It's still cold in February, sometimes we have the worst weather including blizzards and snow and yet, we know that under the surface of creation there are hints of hope that spring is just around the corner. We have the Occasional dry or sunny days, Hellebores, primroses and crocus starting to break through the hard surface of the soil, all are welcome signs that spring is on its way.

Isn't that exactly how God is at work in our lives? In the difficult winter times that seem to go on forever, when circumstances are bleak and all can look bare & fruitless. We can feel that there is no hope of change.

However, under the surface, in our hearts & lives the mystery of God is at work, for all things have a season and whatever we are going through right now will also pass.

As we hunker down in February preparing to see out the last days of winter, let us not forget that we serve a faithful God, who loves us & is with us, who is at work in our lives, in our hearts and circumstances all the time, even when we can't see or feel God is there. God is working under the surface to bring out those new shoots of life and hope, and as we keep trusting and praising God we can be encouraged to wait well for spring time is on its way.

"We thank you, Lord, for the brightness of winter sun; for winter's work and entertainments; For the warmth of home and all its comforts. Lord of all times and seasons, we thank you that there is no season without its satisfactions, and there is no time without its promises. Lord, when we have no light, show us the treasures of darkness. Amen." (from: More Everyday Prayers)

Every Blessing. Rev'd Geraldine.
