On the Way

This autumn, our Deanery and the 6 Clusters of churches within it will be beginning to engage with the diocesan process called On the Way. As the name implies, this is a journey as we seek to travel faithfully into God's future, listening to God as we seek to become ever more fruitful in God's service whilst also ensuring that our churches are sustainable.

ON THE WAY

We will be asked to consider our fruitfulness in terms of:

- Christ's church: discipleship and the community life of the church
- Christ's kingdom: children, young people and schools and poverty
- Christ's world: care for creation and the global church

We are being asked to consider our sustainability in terms of:

- Christ's faithfulness: new faith and growing faith
- Christ's people: diversity of callings and life-giving leadership
- Christ's gifts: money and buildings

Churches, clusters and deaneries will need to work towards being both fruitful and sustainable, and a Deanery Plan will be drawn up in time to reflect any changes to the pattern of mission and ministry in our deanery in the future.

This is a significant process and over the next few months, I would like to ask you to pray for our deanery as it moves through this process and get involved when the time comes. Indeed, you can join the diocesan zoom prayer meeting on Thursday mornings (see below).

Revd Elizabeth Wild

ON THE WAY – You are warmly invited to join us as we gather together from across the diocese for our weekly Zoom Prayer Meeting! We pray for the people. We pray for the work involved in On The Way. We pray for wisdom and guidance. Join us in praying for this vital work as we seek God's plans for fruitfulness and sustainability in our diocese. We meet at 8.30am every Thursday morning on Zoom.

FOUNDATIONS IN CHRISTIAN MINISTRY

Is God calling you? Do you already serve in some way in your local church, but feel there is more that you would like to be able to do?

The aims of the Foundations in Christian Ministry course are:

- to deepen your Christian discipleship
- to explore and help form your gifts for ministry
- to help you discern God's call for the next step in your journey with Him
- and to provide you with a foundation for further training in lay ministry.

Course objectives

By the end of the Foundations course you will:

- have been introduced to the major elements of Biblical studies and Christian doctrine (at a level just short of the first stage of a degree)
- have encountered a range of forms of prayer and expressions of Christian spirituality
- have been introduced to the principles of pastoral care
- be equipped with skills to aid your involvement in God's ministry and mission
- have developed basic skills of personal journaling and reflection
- have explored your vocation, with guidance, and talked with a range of other people.

Study days

- These are the core of the course. They run on Saturdays from 9.30am to 4.45pm.
- Each day includes a mix of informal lectures and group discussions on the Bible, Theology, Spirituality, Mission and Pastoral Care, set within a context of worship, with time to socialise.

St Peter's update

We have started to serve coffee after our morning services and it is uplifting to see everyone relaxing and talking together. We had our first wedding after the refurb in August and although the weather was not very kind it was a truly local wedding with the wedding party walking to church from their homes in the village and then up to the village hall for the reception.

We look forward to the Harvest service at 4pm on Sunday 26th September when Bishop Philip will attend. Booking is essential for this service - please contact me on 01208 880969.

St Endellion & St Peter's, Port Isaac Fete August 11th

The idea of holding a small fund raising event was first raised in February when the government published its roadmap out of Covid lockdown but as time went on, enthusiasm grew and it was decided that it would be good to aim for a full Fete once again, always bearing in mind that it could be cancelled at the last moment.

As you can imagine a great deal of work went into the planning but the support from people in the community was wonderful.

People willingly gave of their time putting up posters, banners, erecting tents, moving furniture, making cakes, pickles, donating to and running stalls and sideshows etc and individuals and businesses generously provided prizes for our Grand Raffle. We've always tried to have something for everyone at our Fete from Vintage/Brlc-a-Brac to children's competitions and games, and this year we even had a rewritten politically correct Punch and Judy show, which was very popular judging by the noise coming from that corner of the garden.

There was a really good attendance and atmosphere and we are thrilled to have raised just under £7,000 which is an incredible amount for an event held in the tiny hamlet of St Endellion! We would like to thank everyone who helped in any way and those who came along and spent their money!

BOOK FESTIVAL

St Endellion
23rd - 26th September 2021

www.ncornbookfest.org

This year's fabulous programme of author events, workshops and musical events can be found and booked on-line at www.ncornbookfest.org/whats-on or Instagram@NCornBookFest. There will also be our café offering an array of fabulous food and for the first time a retail marketplace which will include the Festival bookshop, a variety of Cornish crafts, plants, flowers, a coffee and tea van, homemade cakes and gin. These books are a selection that will be discussed at the festival by their authors:

On Friday evening, there will be the jazz artist Barb Jungr and Flats and Sharps' are an energetic, enthusiastic bluegrass outfit. As an extra special bonus, the evening on Saturday will open with the phenomenal performance poet Luke Wright
